

Hongkong Post e-Cert (Server) Certificate - Certificate Renewal Form

Notes on Certificate Renewal

Hongkong Post Certification Authority provides e-Cert (Server) certificate of validity for 1-year, e-Cert(Server) with "Wildcard" or "Multi-domain" feature of validity for 1-year, Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) and Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) with "Multi-domain" feature of validity for 1-year for selection. It is important to note that any expired e-Cert cannot be renewed. The Authorised Representative of the subscriber organization should renew the e-Cert(s) before they expire. Upon approval of the renewal request, the subscriber organization will be required to generate the key pair and the "Certificate Signing Request (CSR)". The CSR is required to be submitted to Hongkong Post via a designated web page for the issuance of the e-Cert (Server) certificate.

According to Hongkong Post CA renewal policy stipulated in the Certification Practice Statement (Section 4.6), Hongkong Post CA will re-authenticate the identity of the subscriber organisation and the identity of the Authorised Representative (also the identity of the Applicant for Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) renewal request) before the e-Certs can be renewed. In this respect, please follow the steps below for the certificate renewal:

1. Complete this renewal form with the necessary details.
2. Supporting documents to be submitted with the renewal form :

a) Copy of valid Business Registration Certificate. (The validity of the documentation should not expire within one month by the time the application is submitted)

b) Subscriber Terms and Conditions

If the original Authorised Representative is replaced or changed, the new Authorised Representative must sign the Subscriber Terms and Conditions which is contained inside the Application Form for Hongkong Post e-Cert (Organisational / Encipherment / Server) Certificate CPos798F.

c) Authorisation Letter

If the original Authorised Representative is replaced or changed, the subscriber organisation must submit a new authorisation letter bearing the organisation's "For and on behalf of" chop and authorised signature(s) appointing a person as the new Authorised Representative to sign, on behalf of the organisation, documents relating to the application, use, revocation and renewal of certificates issued by the Hongkong Post Certification Authority. The letter should include the Authorised Representative's name and HKID/Passport number (or completing the sample authorisation letter contained in the Application Form for Hongkong Post e-Cert (Organisational / Encipherment / Server) Certificate CPos798F). If the subscriber organisation is a HKSAR Government bureau/department, the authorisation letter should be in memo form impressed with the department chop and signed by the Departmental Secretary or an officer at equivalent rank or above. (In case of renewal request for Extended Validation e-Cert (Server), if either the original Authorised Representative or the Applicant is replaced or changed, the subscriber organisation must submit a new authorisation letter)

d) Copy of proof of ownership of all the applied domain name(s) to be included in the certificate.

e) Copy of valid Certificate of Incorporation or Certificate of Registration (for limited company)

f) Copy of other documents issued by the appropriate Hong Kong registration agency attesting to the existence of your organisation. (for statutory body)

g) Supplementary Application Form for Hongkong Post Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) (CPos 798FEV) (Applicable to renewal request for Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) from subscriber organisation with Business Registration Certificate only)

Note: If items (e) to (f) above have been submitted and there are no changes to them in this application, those documents can be excluded from submission.

3. a) Submit the completed renewal form together with the required supporting documents and pay the renewal fee at any post office in person by the Authorised Representative. The Authorised Representative is required to present his/her original HKID Card/Passport for identity authentication by the staff of Hongkong Post at the time of submitting the renewal form; or
b) The Authorised Representative may choose to submit the renewal application by mail to Kowloon East Post Office Box No. 68777, Hongkong Post Certification Authority, if his/her identity has been authenticated in a past application of the Subscriber Organisation at the designated HKPost premises. Apart from the supporting documents as stated in paragraph 2, the Authorised Representative is also required to submit his/her copy of the HKID card or passport with his/her signature, together with the true copy of the renewal application form and renewal fee (payable only by crossed cheque or credit card). (Submission of renewal application by mail is NOT applicable to Extended Validation e-Cert (Server) renewal request from subscriber organisation with Business Registration Certificate only)

The personal data you provided in this form will be used by Hongkong Post and its operator of e-Cert services for provision of e-Cert services to you. VIII. Terms and Conditions for e-Cert Subscribers

The Hong Kong Post Office (“HKPost”) as represented by the Postmaster General and the Applicant, who is the Organisation as represented by the Authorised Representative, of Hongkong Post e-Cert (“e-Cert(s)”) intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. The Certification Practice Statement (“CPS”) governs the issuance of e-Certs and certification services provided by HKPost. The CPS is publicly accessible at the HKPost website at <http://www.eCert.gov.hk>.
2. By submitting the e-Cert Application Form, the Applicant confirms to have read and understood these Terms and Conditions and have full notice of the obligations and liabilities of the Subscribers and Relying Parties as set out in the CPS.
3. These Terms and Conditions, together with the CPS, constitute the entire Subscriber Agreement referred to in the CPS between HKPost and the Applicant, and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements or understanding between HKPost and the Applicant regarding the issuance of e-Certs.
4. A Subscriber is an Applicant whose Authorised Representative has signed the Terms and Conditions for e-Cert Subscribers and to whom the e-Cert has been issued in accordance with the eligibility criteria set out in the CPS.
5. By submission of the e-Cert Application Form and its receipt by HKPost, the Applicant:
 - a) agrees to pay HKPost the appropriate fee in respect of the issuance of the e-Cert unless such fee has been waived by HKPost in writing;
 - b) agrees to be bound by (i) these Terms and Conditions; and (ii) the provisions of the CPS;
 - c) agrees that the use of the Private Key(s) and the e-Cert(s) is at the sole risk of the Subscriber;
 - d) agrees that HKPost does not give any implied or express warranties in relation to the Private Key(s) and e-Cert(s) issued by HKPost;
 - e) acknowledges that if it does not discharge its responsibilities as set out in these Terms and Conditions and the CPS properly or at all, it may become liable to pay HKPost and/or other persons (including Relying Parties) damages in respect of liabilities or loss and damage they may incur or suffer in consequence;
 - f) undertakes to protect the confidentiality and the integrity of its Private Key(s) by using reasonable precautions to prevent its loss, disclosure, or unauthorised use;
 - g) undertakes to report any loss or compromise of its Private Key(s) immediately upon discovery of the loss or compromise and/or of any circumstance in which the e-Cert(s) should be revoked;
 - h) authorises the publication of the e-Cert(s) to any other person or in the HKPost repository and accepts the e-Cert(s) to be issued;
 - i) agrees that the Postmaster General may limit his/her liability and/or that of HKPost for negligence and/or breach of contract as set out in the CPS, these Terms and Conditions, and/or the Private Key(s) and/or the e-Cert(s) issued by HKPost; and
 - j) agrees that the Postmaster General may further appoint either agents or sub-contractors to perform his/her obligations under the CPS and/or these Terms and Conditions.
6. The Applicant, and as the Subscriber upon acceptance of the e-Cert issued to it, warrants (promises) to HKPost and represents to all other relevant parties (and in particular Relying Parties) that during the operational period of the e-Cert the following facts are and will remain true:
 - a) no other person has had access to the Private Key of the e-Cert, except for the authorised personnel of the Subscriber;
 - b) all information and representations made by it that are included in the e-Cert are true; and
 - c) the Private Key and e-Cert are used exclusively for authorised and legal purposes, and in a manner that will not infringe any third party rights.
7. In accordance with the CPS, HKPost is responsible for the use of a trustworthy system to:
 - a) issue and publish e-Cert(s) in a timely manner;
 - b) notify an Applicant of the rejection of its application;
 - c) notify an Applicant of the approval of its application and how its e-Cert can be retrieved;
 - d) revoke an e-Cert and publish Certificate Revocation Lists in a timely manner; and
 - e) notify a Subscriber of the revocation of its e-Cert.
8. The Subscriber undertakes to pay HKPost a Subscription Fee for each subscription period as specified in the CPS. The Subscription Fee shall be paid before the commencement of each subscription period unless being waived by HKPost in writing. HKPost reserves its absolute right to review and determine the Subscription Fee from time to time and will publish the Subscription Fee via the HKPost website at <http://www.eCert.gov.hk> for the information of the Subscribers and the public.
9. If any terms, or any part of any terms, of these Terms and Conditions are found by any court to be illegal, void or unenforceable, they shall be severed and deleted, but this shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining terms, or remaining part of any terms, of these Terms and Conditions.
10. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China (“HKSAR”). The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of HKSAR.
11. The submission of the e-Cert Application Form and its receipt by HKPost do not guarantee approval of the application. If the application is rejected, the Applicant will be notified of the rejection. If the application is approved, the Applicant shall be bound by these Terms and Conditions as well as the provisions of the CPS.
